

Mesch Architects is an established architectural practice with offices in South Africa as well as Mozambique.

The practice believes that the success of each project is highly dependant on the clients thorough brief.

We have been involved in all disciplines of architecture including residential, commercial and industrial.